RULE 56 STATEMENT

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

Under the provisions of Rule 56, Applicants wish to make of record a Search Report issued by the Georgian Patent Office regarding the corresponding Georgian patent application. A copy of the search report is enclosed.

According to the Georgian attorney, all of the references relate to the "A" category of documents defining the general state of art and are not considered to be of particular relevance.

Accordingly, it is believed that there is no need to make copies of the cited references of record in this application. Please nevertheless make this paper and Search Report a permanent part of this file.

Respectfully submitted,

Takehiro FUKAMI et al.
